BACP ANNOUNCES AUDITIONS FOR “FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON”

The Broken Arrow Community Playhouse is pleased to announce an additional audition for “FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON” on Tuesday February 15, 2005 at 6:30 PM. Richard Matthew’s is directing the show. This is the story of Charlie Gordon, a developmentally disabled man who is the subject of experimental brain surgery to heighten his intelligence. The operation has been successfully performed only on a mouse named Algernon. The operation is a success; Charlie’s intelligence soars to genius levels, and he achieves his dream of being “smart;” but nothing can prepare him for the shock of seeing the world as it really is. Once Algernon begins to show signs of the operations’ effect reversing, Charlie knows he has precious little time to come to terms with himself, the world, and the woman he loves. “Flowers For Algernon” explores the consequences of how we treat others and the universal theme of loss of innocence.

The director is looking for 2 men late teens early 20’s 1 male early 30’s and 1 male 50 plus.
